The Office will be closed when school is closed.

Dear Christ Lutheran members and friends,

I came into the church on Monday morning - January 22nd - and opened my 'One Year Bible' and had a reading from Proverbs 4-11-13, where King Solomon wrote the following, 'I instruct you in the way of wisdom and lead you along straight paths. 12 When you walk, your steps will not be hampered; when you run, you will not stumble. 13 Hold on to instruction, do not let it go; guard it well, for it is your life.'

I started to ponder the meaning of this short yet very poignant Bible passage. Solomon reminds his son that he taught him the way of wisdom and led him in the paths of uprightness. Two observations are significant in this verse. First, it is important to teach others how they should live.

Second, it is also important to lead by example. This statement is complicated, coming from someone like Solomon. Scripture records that he drifted from following wisdom (1 Kings 11:4), only to realize his mistakes (Ecclesiastes 12:13). Spoken to a student (Proverbs 4:1), using fatherly terminology, this might be more literally true. Even so, a good father can use his own mistakes to help a child learn what is best. Solomon's own experience might have enhanced that message, in fact (Proverbs 4:13).

The use of a "path" as a metaphor for life is used often in the Bible. A rocky, twisting, darkened road is harder to navigate, and enhances the risks of falling. Straight and clear paths are much better — this is why TRUTH and GODLINESS are spoken of as "paths of uprightness," and so forth.

The apostle Paul both preached and lived out godly wisdom. He reminded the Christians at Thessalonica that he and his coworkers had declared God's Word to them "in power and in the Holy Spirit and with full conviction" (1 Thessalonians 1:5), and had modeled the Christian life among them (1 Thessalonians 5:6).

As a result, the Thessalonian believers had become imitators of Paul and his teammates and "an example to all the believers in Macedonia and in Achaia" (1 Thessalonians 1:7). In his first letter to Timothy, Paul commanded Timothy to teach good doctrine and set an example for the believers "in speech, in conduct, in love, in faith, in purity" (1 Timothy 4:11-16).

Yet, as I have come to realize in my personal life, my church life, and my teaching life - there are many naysayers you will meet in your life who try to take you down the wrong path by their lies and deceitful ways. This can be especially sad when it is people from your own family, your place of employment, and/or your own church.

From 2 Timothy chapter 4 verses 3 and 4 - Apostle Paul wrote, '3 For the time is coming when people will not endure sound[a] teaching, but having itching ears they will accumulate for themselves teachers to suit their own passions, 4 and will turn away from listening to the truth and wander off into myths.'

This is unacceptable behavior for children, let alone adults who should know better. How can your family, your place of employment, and/or your church every truly grow and become a place of inspiration and hope for everyone when you have those 'false teachers'?

When you look in your bathroom mirror every morning and every night, who do you truly see? A 'Truly Devoted Christian' or a 'Christian Lite' - one who turns and twists things like the Pharisees to meet their personally needs - yet sits in the pews and acts just like those Jewish leaders of Jesus' days. Be careful like King Solomon was trying to teach his sons the appropriate ways. Don't become like those Jewish leaders.

As you see King Solomon's life was far from perfect. He went down many paths and regretted it as he reflected upon his life. So, as we start this month of February after just having our Annual Meeting on the 28th of January - we have many incredible leaders here at Christ Lutheran who I truly believe have sound doctrine and can help us grow our church and who are also pillars in our communities.

Leaders must remember - that you are not in front of others to make an impression on them. Leaders are not seeking to draw attention to themselves. Their purpose is to serve God and to help His people learn to do the same. When a leader works for God without the thought of reward - they demonstrate their fitness to be a great leader.

Again, King Solomon's wrote in his Proverb, "I instruct you in the way of wisdom and lead you along straight paths. 12 When you walk, your steps will not be hampered; when you run, you will not stumble. 13 Hold on to instruction, do not let it go; guard it well, for it is your life.'

May we all do the same!

Here are some items to remember for this upcoming month of February and into March as well -

- Ash Wednesday - is on Valentine's Day - the 14th. The service will start at 6:30 and we will have communion.
- Lenten season starts on February 21st and concludes on March 20th. The service will start at 6:30 and we will not have communion. Each service will be about 30-minutes in length. Here are all the dates - February 21st. & 28th, March 6th, 13th, and 20th
- Easter is on March 31st. We tentatively have a 10:00 worship service time with communion.
- Messy Spirituality (God's Annoying Love for Imperfect People) - we have just started a new Bible Study on learning about our messy lives with God and how He still loves us regardless of what we have done. Please join us on this eight week class. The book is $15.00, yet please come even if you don't want the book.
- Sunday School - just a reminder our Sunday School runs from 9:00 to 9:45. We are blessed to have amazing adults teaching our youth!
- Griefshare - is a class where people are always welcomed to come and talk about their loss of a loved one in a quiet, confidential environment in the Chapel Lounge at 6 pm each Monday led by Mary Baune and Lorna Badar.
- Home Visits - please call, text, or email me anytime if you want me to visit with you or just want to talk. You are always welcomed to stop in the church to just talk, as well.

God's Blessings!!!

Stewardship Committee December 13, 2023

To you dedicated Stewardship Committee people and Pastor Chad, Thank you for a challenging and inspirational year! The Synod's Revitalization Pilot was a big challenge, and we have really learned a lot.... not that we could ever have done all that was presented. But we did come to appreciate the newer, better ways that churches could operate. Hopefully these ideas can be implemented by your committee next year.... giving us the Vision and Mission that we've been seeking. We've laid the groundwork; with God's help and guidance we will become the family church that so many have talked about and wished for.

God bless you all,

Karen Tommeraasen

Property & Management Board Meeting

Minutes from 11/29/2023 (December) Members Present: Jan Cuperus, Jeff Grieme, Denny Lickness, Jim Jens, & Curt Jensen.

Topics Discussed

As per the current church constitution the budget was examined and discussed. The Property & Management Board concluded that we have insufficient data i.e.- projected revenue, payroll expenses, etc. to formulate a 2024 budget. The board feels that the Church Council should delegate budget planning to others with more information and expertise to finalize a new budget. Exterior doors for the chapel lounge and two adjacent to the alter area need replacement. It was previously decided to possibly replace them over time. The door to the east of the alter needs to be replaced first due to water pipe freezing in that area. Jim will get bids on door replacement.

The meeting was adjourned and Curt Jensen will report Board discussions to the Church Council.

The next Property & Management Board meeting is planned for 12/27/2023.

Where your treasure is, there your heart will be also. Matthew 6:19

From your Parish Nurse...

February is American HEART Month!

Did you know that people who have close relationships at home, work, or in their community tend to be healthier and live longer? One reason, according to the National Heart, Lung, and Blood Institute, is that we're more successful at meeting our health goals when we work on them with others. Here are some facts, how-to tips and resources to inspire you to join with others, even if you can't be physically together, to improve your heart health.

Heart disease is a leading cause of death for both men and women in the U.S. Most middle-aged and young adults have one or more risk factors for heart disease, such as diabetes, high blood pressure, high cholesterol, or being a smoker or overweight. Having multiple risk factors increases your risk for heart disease.

Why Connecting is Good for your Heart

Feeling connected with others and having positive, close relationships benefit our overall health, including our blood pressure and weight. Having people in our lives who motivate and care for us helps, as do feelings of closeness and companionship. Follow these heart-healthy lifestyle tips to protect your heart. It will be easier and more successful if you work on them with others, including by texting or phone calls if needed.

- *Be more physically active. You don't have to make big changes all at once.
- *Maintain a healthy weight. Small steps will get you where you want to go.
- *Eat a nutritious diet.
- *Quit smoking.
- *Reduce stress.
- *Get 7-8 hours of quality sleep.
- *Track your heart health stats.

Move more

Invite family, friends, colleagues, or members of your community to join you in your efforts to be more Physically active:

- *Ask a colleague to walk "with you" on a regular bases, put the date on both your calendars, and text or call to make sure you both get out for a walk.
- *Even chair exercises are great!!

Our Mission:
To mobilize women to act boldly on their faith in Jesus Christ.
